

A WORD FROM HEAVEN

Presented by Wendy Alec

BELOVED I AM BACK WITH YOU AGAIN AND
THIS TIME WE ARE GOING TO TALK MORE ABOUT TRANSITION,
DIVINE ALIGNMENT
AND TIMING. I ALSO FEEL THAT WHAT
THE LORD WANTS TO ADDRESS THIS WEEK IS
'THE WILDERNESS'.

ON BEING PASSED OVER

I am going to read from The Journal of the Unknown Prophet, 'On Being Passed Over':

Oh beloved, I see you in that place of solitude.

I see you in that place where no man knows or discerns the call and the destiny or purpose for your life. And I would say to you this day that even in this place, is it not I who have hidden you in the cleft of the rock? Is it not by My sovereign hand that for a brief moment I have chosen to hide My plan and My purpose from those who presently surround you?

That's hard I know...

You see, beloved child, called out by Me, chosen and ordained to My End-Time purpose, it is in the place of solitude, it is in the place of misrepresentation, it is in the place of misunderstanding, it is in the place where you are passed over that I prove you. It is in this place of no recognition and no man's approval that surely your heart is tried and tested as to whom you will serve. So precious child, this day, I ask you, would you serve man and man's recognition and obtain man's reward, so fleeting, like a vapour?

Oh no, My child, be strong, be of great courage and draw into My secret place. And it is as you humble yourself even amidst the pain of death to your flesh, even when no man knows your call, when no man sees your place nor discerns My purpose for your life, that it is in the crucible for all that seems to count so much, that truly you are crucified with Me.

That it may be no longer that you live but that My Spirit shall live within you. For surely it shall be that in these coming days My Bride shall say, 'No longer Christ in me, but it is I in Christ. No longer Christ in me, but surely I have been crucified with Christ and my life is hid in Him.

And so beloved child, in this place of quietness, in this place of obscurity, be not dismayed at all that surrounds you at this present time. But rejoice in that the King is your great right hand and know that as you worship Me and Me alone that I shall bring your purpose forth in season. And that you shall know that to serve the living God and to wait only for My approval and seek only My recognition, that the way of death to self is surely the only way to eternal life in My Kingdom. So be strong, beloved. Be of good courage for I will never fail you nor forsake you. For surely, you have been tried in the furnace of affliction and have been found faithful and so you have touched the heart of the Father.

And just before I start to share what I feel the Holy Spirit is saying on that, I just want to go back to last time, when we were talking about those who are in transition who need to stand in exactly the same place, in exactly the same position. But there was a third thing and it was the timing of God.

And the Lord wants to speak to those today who we have just read about who are in place of obscurity, to those today who have been passed over by man. To those today who know what God has for you. You know you have stood on His promise – some of you for years and years – and the vision that He has placed in you. For some of you it is a generational vision, for some of you when that destiny and purpose is released upon your life, you will change nations. For some of you when that destiny is released upon your life, you will change entire generations.

“But right now,” the Lord says, “there are some of you who are in the furnace of affliction. There are some of you right now,” the Lord says, “who even like Joseph have found yourself in the pit. There are some of you who have found yourself in prison. There are some of you who have been wrongly accused. There are some of you who have been set up and wrongly accused,” says the Lord. “There are some of you who have been misrepresented. There are some of you who have been betrayed.”

Ah, I feel there are some of you who have experienced real agony, some of you who have been betrayed in this hour. And the Father is right there and He sees that agony. There are some of you who have been in such a wilderness. “There are some of you that have been in such a wilderness, that you have been driven and tempted almost to despair,” says the Lord, “there are some of you who have been in such a wilderness because you have looked to your right and you have seen friends of yours, you have seen neighbours, you have seen ministry friends of yours, you have seen those in churches – there are some of you, I believe, who have churches – there are some of you who have missions – and yet it seems like the bud is not blooming.

It is just barren and dry and yet you know the Lord has called you. You know the Lord has called you to impact an entire generation. You know that the Lord has called you. You know what He has called you to. And yet you have just cried out in your chamber and said, “Father, I just don’t understand.” And the Lord says, “It is because it has been a wilderness time, because you are being tried in the furnace of affliction. You are being tried in the furnace of affliction.”

There are people watching, sons and daughters, men and women, watching from all walks of life, not only those in ministry, but in business. And you are being tried right now in the furnace of affliction. You are being tried in the furnace of affliction. And I want to talk to some people right now who are called to business. Some people who are called to the marketplace, that God has shown you that you are to be Joseph and He is going to raise you up as a storehouse even in these End Days.

And the Lord says, “Even like Joseph you have been put in the pit, and you have been put in the prison and you have felt that your way has been passed over. And you have felt that your call hasn’t been acknowledged or understood by many around you. But the Lord says “Child you have to understand My times and My purposes. You have to discern My hour and My season for you in this time. You have to discern the preparational stage of your life, with this aridness that you seem to be walking through. That you are being tried right now in the furnace of affliction.”

And this is where the Lord started speaking some weeks ago – because I see what is written in the spirit realm. I see the words, ‘EVEN IN A DAY’! And when you are in the wilderness, it is easy to talk to the talk, it is different to walk the walk. But, I want to tell you that Rory and I have been in this position and I felt that the Lord wanted me to share our testimony with you:

There was a time when we came over to America. We saw the vision – we are going to broadcast across America. We are going to broadcast a new prophetic schedule that was going to start to change the End-Time destiny of the Church. We were called with passion and fervour. We were called with destiny and purpose. A huge part of our purpose was to be in America, but we were here for three years before there was any broadcast.

We looked crazy. We were going around to everybody, to all our ministry friends, who loved us from GOD TV in Europe and we were saying “We are called to America, but there has been NO breakthrough.” We couldn’t get on any platform. Satan tried to stop us on every one, but I just want to say this: we were in the furnace of affliction. We were being tried and tested in the furnace of affliction and God said, “See it through!”

And there is a time that comes in your life when you pass the test. It is like what John Hagee ministered this Missions Week... There is a moment in time when you pass the test. And for some of you, you are right there. You can’t give up because God is saying to you right now, “Child you have passed the test. You are right there. You want to give up,” but the Lord says, “You can’t give up now, because you have passed the test. And when you have passed the test,” the Lord said, “Even in a day, it shall come to pass.” And even in a day we got the broadcasting contract with DIRECTV. Even in a day. One day there was nothing, the next evening everything opened, every door opened after three years!

My time is almost up, but the Lord is speaking to you and saying “Child don’t you dare give up, because you have almost passed the test.” And the Father of all Mercies and Compassions wants to speak to you today and say, “Beloved child, I love you so much, thank you, you have passed the test in the furnace of affliction. Even in a day, even in a day, even in a day I am about to open a door to you, that even in a day you would not believe it if you could see it. Even in a day you shall see every promise, every vision, every promise that I have given you come to fruition in the Land of the Living, even in a day.”

He loves you so much, He loves you so much, your name is written on the palms of His hands. He never forgets you, He never forgets you. We love you too.

God bless you.
