

A WORD FROM HEAVEN

Presented by Wendy Alec

HELLO BELOVED,
IT IS WONDERFUL
TO BE WITH YOU
AGAIN. THE WORD
'TRANSITION' IS STILL THERE, I CAN'T GET AWAY FROM IT.
I WILL FINISH WHEN
THE LORD FINISHES
ON IT, BUT I WANT
TO READ TO YOU
A PORTION FROM
THE JOURNAL OF
THE UNKNOWN
PROPHET, CALLED
'THE DESERT PLACE',
FOR SOME OF YOU
TODAY.
AND THE LORD SAYS
TO YOU:

THE DESERT PLACE

Beloved, I know that it has seemed a desert place.

I have seen your hands fall in despair even when no man has seen. And I have heard your voice cry out to Me, even in the midnight hour, when no man knew or thought that you were in pain.

I have seen the grieving of your heart when no one knew that you had grief to bear. And so My child, I would say to you this day, that as you have walked with Me month after month, year after year in humility, in faithfulness, where you have worshipped Me and adored Me...

The Lord is speaking to some of you today...

... behind closed doors where no man has seen – I would say to you this day – that where no man has seen, surely I, the Lord your God, your redeemer, your Father and your counselor, that I have seen your heart. I have seen into the depths to the motives and intents of your heart.

Oh beloved. I see you as you worship Me, even in this time of darkness. Oh My Child, I see you as you cling to Me even in this time of mundaneness where each day goes by so slowly. You have worshipped Me in spirit and in truth, you have brought great joy to Me when you have drawn near in My presence, and have asked nothing but to commune with Me – for surely you have blessed the heart of My Father.

For you see, My child, you have come into My presence wanting to give to Me. You have come into My presence not wanting to take or to gain but to worship Me, to adore Me and to glorify My Name.

And so, My child, the Father Himself would gather you as His great treasure, a pearl beyond value, priceless – for as you have placed His fellowship and the fellowship of His Spirit above worldly riches, above human gain, above recognition or power – so surely you have touched the heart of the Father.

And so I would say to you, that even as you have been faithful in the desert place...

And now we are talking about those in transition...

... so in but a short while, there is coming a season upon you and your ministry, upon you and your family, where the rose shall bloom. A season where the bare branches shall bud forth.

A season where rivers shall spring forth in the desert and streams shall flow, where My Hand shall move with greater power upon you and in time to come I shall pour out My Spirit in greater measure upon you, that men and women shall say, "Surely the Hand of the Lord God Jehovah is upon you."

And so it is that doors shall open to you, that divinely ordained opportunities shall come to you. And in that day, you shall rejoice in your heart and know that, I the Lord your God, am the rewarder of those who seek Me, the rewarder of those who love My presence.

Thank you Father. And Father I want to pray today for all those who are in transition. All of those who find themselves in a desert place today. And Father I thank you, and today we remember, Father, I remember what is on your heart, Father, is that I see some mothers at home... moms at home who have walked faithfully day by day by day,

...serving You, loving You, doing what they know to do. And Father I am seeing a great door opening for some of these. Father I am seeing new doors open for some of these. For You have seen faithfulness. And I am seeing faithfulness. I am seeing the Lord. I am seeing that there is a time and a season in the spiritual realm now where God is going to start to reward the faithfulness in the unseen place and the desert place in a manner that is just now in the spiritual realm for some of you.

Oh Father, I can't help it, God is bringing me back again to these pensioners, to our wonderful beloved pensioners all across the world. Father, I thank you Father. I can't help it because there is joy in me when He says this. It is the same thing that happened last week or the week before. I am seeing people, a couple who think they have retired. I can't help it, I am seeing this again. I am seeing a couple who think they have retired and they have been doing all their retirement plans and there is great joy and whatever. And I am seeing the Lord is about to release a ministry upon them. They have ministered all their lives. I don't think it has been full time ministry. I think it has been in the marketplace and other things, but I am seeing God is releasing an anointing on this couple that is profound. You are not going into retirement, you are not going into retirement.

I am seeing widows and widowers and the Lord is seeing you, and you have stood faithfully and prayed and He is so blessed and He is saying: "Your latter years of increase are going to be far, far greater than the years you have known before." Oh, and the Lord is speaking comfort. And the Lord says, "There are those of you who have been scared of loneliness," and the Lord says, "No, no, no, My child, because your way has been seen before Me, and even as you have sown in so many ways into My Kingdom," the Lord makes you this promise, "You will never, never be alone." He is making this promise to someone: "You will never, never, never, never be alone!"

And I am also seeing those who God has spoken promises to for years and years and years. I am seeing some people who have stood for so long for some of these promises and visions and you have believed for so long and you have seen a partial fulfillment in some of them, you have seen partial fulfillment. It is not that you have seen no fulfillment, but you sense such a magnitude in your spirit and there is still not the release of it. And the Lord is saying, you are in transition and that He is moving you to that place of harvest, but He can't, there are still some tweaks, there are still some things...

It is not only about you hearing Him, it is also that He is aligning people. Divine alignment also means that your destiny is dependent on others being in divine alignment. This is very important for some of you. There are some of you in transition that you don't have to do a thing, 'I am speaking to others of you.' There are some in transition who need to move, there are tweaks and things you need to hear and changes that need to be made.

But the Lord is speaking to a separate group of people now, and He is saying: "There are those of you who are in transition and you have been believing Me for promises and visions to come to pass, some of you for years." Some of you have broken your heart lately over this, because you know you are called, you know you are called, you know you are called. You know what God has commissioned you to do and the release just hasn't come, the door hasn't opened for you. And the Lord would issue what I believe is a mighty word of comfort to you this day...

And what He would say to you is this: "My child you have done nothing wrong. You have done nothing wrong." Oh I want to cry... He says: "My child, you are in exactly the right place, you are in exact obedience to Me, you are in the right place at the right time doing the right things..." And you are saying, 'but Father nothing is happening, everything is bare, everything looks dead, everything looks like a wilderness.'

And the Lord says, "You just stand still. You stand still, you make no changes and you will see the glory of the Lord," because it is not you who needs to move. What the Lord is doing is moving some other people in transition now, who are in the wrong place, who are part of your destiny, and He is moving them to the right and He is moving them to the left. He is moving some of them geographically towards you, into the territory where God has called you because what you have been empowered to do is dependent on some of these other people who have been in disobedience, so the Lord wants to say to you today, "You see child, you just stand still."

This is a rhema word of the Lord and I am going to prophesy it with power and authority to you. The Lord says to you watching today: "You stand still, you are in the right place. You are in the right position, you are in the right time. You are in divine alignment, but there are others that I am moving now who are part of your purpose and part of your destiny. So, My child you need to be obedient. Now you need to pray. You need to pray this in." That is the one thing. Finally, I haven't much time left... the Lord says, "There is one more thing."

The other thing is timing. Because, there is a season and a timing that affects this hour in the Church. For those whose promises have not yet come to pass, the Lord says, "Child you are in the right place, you are in the right position." He says, "you are almost in the right timing, but the timing hasn't been right. The timing hasn't been right. The time moves on every day for a vision and the timing will come. And the timing will come. And the timing in My Body and it is coming swiftly," because we are moving into a shift in the Body of Christ.

I have only a few seconds left. It has been so wonderful being with you. The Lord loves you so, so much. E-mail me at wendy@god.tv and let me know what the Lord is saying to you. But, I just want you to know He loves you so much. His mercies are towards you. His compassions are towards you. "Never," He said, "Wendy, never, never back off to speak about My goodness." He is a good God and He loves you. God bless, you.

See you next time.
