

A WORD FROM HEAVEN

Presented by Wendy Alec

HELLO BELOVED!
I AM LOOKING FORWARD TO SHARING A FEW MINUTES WITH YOU ON WHAT I FEEL
THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS PUT ON MY HEART FOR YOU TODAY, AND TO PRAY FOR YOU AS WELL.
FIRST, I JUST WANT TO READ A PORTION OF
THE JOURNAL OF THE
UNKNOWN PROPHET, CALLED 'FOR THOSE ON THE POINT OF GIVING UP'.

FOR THOSE ON THE POINT OF GIVING UP

Oh beloved, you sit before Me and you say it has been too hard, you have no heart left to continue.

But Oh beloved, you cannot in this season look to the temporal. You dare not in this hour focus on those things that presently surround you. For even as it is in the circumstances of this Earth that seem at present so fruitless – and even as the branches in your life seem to be bare and without bud – surely I would tell you that all things around you and outside you, your work environment, your ministry, your Church situation – and child, even that which you called impossible, even that which no one knows nor guesses nor could imagine...

I tell you, I am He who walks with you, I am He who is beside you in the midnight hour as much as in the light of the noonday sun. For I am the God of the secret places in your heart and I have seen the tears fall over that which no one guessed, not even those closest to you.

And this is the bit that I just love, that really ministered to me from the Lord's heart...

And when you had no strength to bear those secret things, so you found strength in Me.

The Lord says to some of you today...

And when you had no reason to carry on, you found meaning and reason in Me. And so beloved, this day I implore you – look up beyond the temporal life to that which is eternal – to that which shall be written in the great and marvellous Book of Life. And seek to be counted in the pages of this wonder. For surely on that great day when the Books are opened and My Father Himself would wipe every tear from your eye and the old order is passed away and all mourning is finished and My Kingdom is come in all its glory – on that day beloved – all that is build on the sands of temporal and earthly things shall be burned up even in a moment as a vapour.

And this is what the Lord wants to say to you today...

But that which you have done for Me, when you felt you had no strength, shall be recorded. And that which you did for another – where there was no gain, but you did in My place on My behalf and in My Name – this shall be recorded.

All your tears weeping for a lost generation, all your prayers seen only in the secret place,

And I really feel this for some of you today, especially.

All the wounds of battle within this present Church age... the scars and the aching of heart and the souls that were saved for My sake... and My Gospel that you preached faithfully and unstintingly, even when you were bare and dry, yet you faithfully proclaimed... this shall be recorded.

And the poor that you helped and the bowed down that you raised up... and the men and women that you took time for and disciplined... and the encouraging words you gave even when no one encouraged you... Oh yes My child, these are the things of your life that shall be written in the Book of Life.

Now Father, I just want to pray today for all of those, Father, who You have talked about in these words, who are reading right now and I want to thank you for each one. Father, for each son, for each daughter, especially the ones, Father, who I feel are reading right now... Those, who have encouraged others, when no one has encouraged them.

I feel the Lord has looked down upon you from His Throne room in Heaven and He has seen you ministering and pouring out your life and discipling and encouraging those around you. And some of you intercessors have been in the most desolate places in your own lives and yet the Lord says, "My child, I have seen you go into your secret chamber and lay down before Me. And I have seen you pour out your heart for this lost generation, in intimacy with Me." And the Lord said, "All these things are seen before Me in the Throne room. All your prayers rise up like incense to Me .

And I see that as your prayers rise up like incense before the Father in the Throne room, that He sees your very situation and He sees you in your secret chamber and it blesses and touches His heart and I see the Father moved so deeply.

And Father I just want to thank you for these ones, I want to thank you today Father for the ones who have prayed. Father I want to thank you for the intercessors today, Father for those ones who have laid their lives down and wept for a lost generation.

And I feel the Lord speaking to some of you who have felt passed over, that you have felt unloved, that you have felt that there are so few people who have even understood your heart and what you do for the Father. But the Father would say to you today: "My child, it doesn't matter, you don't need man's endorsement. You don't have to be affirmed by those around you, even though this is a natural thing of the human heart."

But the Lord would say to you today, "Beloved, I will affirm you. You have to seek My affirmation because when you have My affirmation you don't need man's affirmation. When you have My affirmation, you have My favour."

And I will get into this in our next session, but I feel the same word coming back now, which is the word about TRANSITION and DIVINE ALIGNMENT. Because the Lord says again, and again and it keeps rising in my spirit, that in this hour and in this season there are those of you who are reading this right now, and you are in transition and it is extremely uncomfortable. But for some of you it is more than extremely uncomfortable because you feel as though your whole world has been taken out from under you. You really do. And the Lord has been talking to me about some of you who watch GOD TV, because He knows who will watch these programmes, and He desperately loves you so much that He just wants to encourage you and speak to you.

And I saw in the Spirit that there are those of you who have lost businesses, some of you reading have lost businesses, some of you reading have experienced business doors that have suddenly shut. I feel that there are some people in Real Estate and you have seen what was a flowing river and you have seen that even in a matter of weeks that it has just dried up and yet you have been faithful to the Lord. And you are saying to the Lord, "Father, I just don't understand?"

And the Lord would just say to you: "Child you are in transition, you are in transition. When you are in transition, everything is out of your comfort zone. I have taken away all that is familiar, everything that is familiar, that you could lean upon in the natural has been taken away. Because, you are in the process of transition. I am teaching you to go by hearing My voice alone, to go by seeing My face alone, to go by the Word of God and by trusting Me alone and to move by faith in My Word alone in this time."

But He says, "My child, in this period of transition as I start moving you... and I have already started moving you into divine alignment," the Lord would say, "As you move along and put your hand in Mine, that you will move into that perfect place in Me that no man can take out of your hand because I have given it to you. And that great recompense comes to you child, there's great reward that's coming towards you, there is great reward coming towards you."

For some of you there is reward in the spiritual realm, in visions and in ministry that God is going to just accelerate the spiritual realm for you. But I also see great recompense in the natural realm for some of you who have lost businesses, for some of you whose whole financial realm has felt such an upheaval. And the Lord says: "That when you move out of transition into divine alignment and you just cling to Me and to My promise that I have given you, you are going to see My Hand move and you will see, even as Job saw, everything restored, even in a day."

I will continue ministering on this next time, because the Lord says, "Even in a day Joseph became prime minister. Even in a day he was taken from living in desolation and despair, except for his faith, because He clung to Me and because he knew My heart for Him. And even in a day I shall transform every single thing around you."

Thank you Father.
