

A WORD FROM HEAVEN

Presented by Wendy Alec

BELOVED, I WANT TO SPEND A FEW MINUTES WITH YOU SHARING WHAT THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS PUT ON MY HEART FOR YOU TODAY AND THEN STAND WITH YOU IN PRAYER FOR WHAT GOD IS DOING IN YOUR LIFE. AND I JUST CAN'T GET AWAY FROM THE WORD 'TRANSITION' FOR YOU AT THIS TIME. IT FEELS LIKE THE LORD HAS SAID THAT IN THIS SEASON AND IN THIS HOUR, AND HE HAS SAID THIS FOR OUR GOD TV VIEWERS, THAT MANY, MANY OF YOU ARE IN TRANSITION AT THIS TIME, AT THIS STAGE AND SEASON OF YOUR LIFE.

TO THOSE EXPERIENCING WEARINESS

And for many, many of you it has been a bewildering time because what the Lord showed me was many, many people's comfort zones and there was a stripping of comfort zones in so many areas, that for some of the Lord's sons and daughters going through this transition period, it feels like literally everything that you could lean on or rely on has been stripped away from you in the natural. And that you are having to cling to the Lord with every fibre of your being.

And I see some of you looking up to Him and His focus is so on you at this time. And I just want to say to you that nothing that you are going through in this season and in this hour is unseen by the Lord. You have not been passed over by the Lord. I really felt that the Lord really, really needed you and wanted you and yearned for you from His heart of mercies and compassions and wanted you to know that you have not been forsaken. That you have not been passed over.

In this period of transition, I saw that there were businesses that had collapsed. I saw there were businesses that had gone into receivership. Specifically, I saw a Real Estate that had been like a flowing river, but it had dried up to a trickle. And I will get onto other areas, but when it comes to those who are in financial transition, and those who are finding transition in their business and in the marketplace, that the Lord saw that some of you, in fact many, many of you are those who have faithfully sowed into the Gospel.

And, that you have been faithful with your gifts to sow into the Gospel. And the Lord said that He wanted you to know: "My child, I need you to know that I have seen every seed, every seed that you have planted into My Gospel, every seed that you have faithfully sown and sacrificed in obedience, when My Holy Spirit whispered to you, and you sowed in obedience to My instruction, I have seen."

And I saw all these seeds being held in huge warehouse, like a reservoir of grain and you were on the outside and you couldn't see your seed. But the Lord had memorized every single seed that you had ever sowed financially. Then I saw that the Lord had stored this all up. All your seeds had gone into the Gospel and while you were sowing into the Gospel, He had sown seeds of harvest for you and those seeds had been magnified and multiplied a hundred and a thousand times.

The seeds you had sown into the Gospel were about that high, but I saw this huge granary, and I felt that there were angels on the wind and that they undid the huge lock on this granary and then it started falling like grain and it started falling like grain upon you. But the Lord said, "you are in transition because He is changing things, He is moving you in different directions. And you are not seeing the harvest yet, because that comes in divine alignment." That is when those doors open. I believe the angels open those doors and that harvest of grain comes back maximized a thousand fold upon you.

But the Lord said: "Understand this My child, your harvest is here that I have kept for you. Your harvest is waiting for you, but you are in transition." And the Lord said that the reason that many are in transition at this moment in time is because the things that they have been doing will not sustain them in the years to come. And this is not only about finance, this is also for ministers, mothers at home, for families, this is for geographical moves. In this season and in this hour it is so desperately important that every single person who has a call on their life in this End Time season are in divine alignment. The Lord is allowing and taking away the comfort areas of everyone's life, and all of our lives, because He said that a lot of the things that many, many of His children have been doing, and that means you, have been good for the past season but they will not sustain you in the years to come.

I felt that the Father said that there are some of you that you have been in the wrong place and He is now divine aligning you. He talked about geographical moves. There are some of you who have been in the wrong cities. There are some of you who have been in the wrong towns for what is ahead for you in your call. And there are some of you who are in the wrong nations. And God in this time has to divine align you. The people that He is divine aligning, the people who are mostly feeling this transition are those of you who love the Lord and are called by the Lord. Those of you have said, "Father, use me."

I have heard a cry, I can see in the Spirit that there has been a cry go up from many of your hearts, saying, "Father, in this season, use me." And the Father has taken you at your word and He is about to release the call, and the destiny and the purpose for your life upon your life in power and magnitude as you have never known before, but He will not do that, He cannot afford to do that, until you move from transition into divine alignment.

I AM GOING TO CONTINUE NEXT TIME, BUT I JUST WANT TO PRAY FOR YOU RIGHT NOW:

Father, I want to pray for a clarity of hearing Your voice in this hour. Father, I pray for every single man and woman, boy and girl, pensioner (I tell you there are pensioners that God is going to use, there are widows and widowers and pensioners, and God says, "You have thought that you were going into retirement, no child you are not going into retirement. I am about to put you into the greatest phase of ministry that you have ever known.") Father I lift up these precious ones, who are feeling the pain, the discomfort, even the agony of transition, and Father I ask that you comfort them with Your comfort in these times.

But Father, far more than that, I ask Father for your Voice. I ask for the Voice of Your Holy Spirit to be so powerful and clear and in such clarity in these ones, that they will hear Your Voice in the midnight hour as they rest their heads upon the pillow. That they will hear Your Voice, Father in the watch from 3am to 6am, for visitation. That they will hear Your Voice Father in the morning as they go about their business. That they will hear Your Voice Father, whispering through the hours of the day: "Do this My child, do that My child, change this My child, tweak that My child, move here My child, move there My child."

And right now in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I release divine words from Heaven. I release clarity in divine direction from Heaven. Father, I release a word in season from Heaven, from the Father Himself, from the Throneroom of Heaven, in season, in power, in clarity, directional, directional, directional words from Heaven. Angelic words that are brought across their path by the angelic, a phone call, a letter, confirming things right now in the Name of Jesus. And I bless each one who is in transition Father, in the Name of Jesus. Bless, bless, bless, with Your presence, Your love, Your power, Father, in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you Father. Amen.

*Thank you Father
Amen.*
